Jake Jacobsen is a Securities Attorney at Jacko Law Group, PC. He brings nearly six years of legal and compliance experience to the firm. His practice is focused on counseling Registered Investment Advisers, Private Funds and CFTC-registered firms, and those servicing the financial industry.

Mr. Jacobsen is well-versed in managing complex legal matters that involve federal and state securities regulations. He has extensive experience in federal and state investment adviser and NFA regulations and focuses his practice on formation and registration of companies and compliance program matters involving AI and privacy laws, cybersecurity rules and regulations, Regulation S-P, regulatory examinations and investigations, and issues involving investment and commodity advisers. He has proved invaluable to JLG clients meeting the stringent requirements of securities rules and regulations, and is highly skilled in arbitration and negotiation.

In his prior role, Mr. Jacobsen served as Senior Associate at Advisorlaw where he drafted and evaluated legal and regulatory documents to ensure they met strict regulatory requirements while protecting his clients' business objectives. He also successfully represented clients in arbitration and expungement and addressed a wide range of issues that registered investment advisers face in their day-to-day practice.

Mr. Jacobsen's legal and regulatory compliance knowledge has been an asset in ensuring clients understand the regulations governing their businesses. His goal is to make sure his clients remain prepared – whether for a change in business direction, an unexpected complaint, or in the event of a regulatory exam. Our clients truly appreciate Mr. Jacobsen's proactive approach.

Mr. Jacobsen earned a Juris Doctor degree from the University of Denver – Sturm College of Law. He is admitted to the State Bars of Colorado and California.

In his free time, Mr. Jacobsen enjoys spending time with his wife and dog, being outdoors, and visiting the beach.
