Amanda Sobel is an experienced, results-driven paralegal whose talents are essential to the success and service of the Jacko Law Group, PC (“JLG”) team. With almost 15 years of experience in the legal industry, Ms. Sobel provides the JLG team with valuable insight and an enhanced understanding of various topics and industries. In addition to paralegal support for JLG’s attorneys, she is instrumental in providing legal administration support and fostering client relationships at JLG.

Ms. Sobel plays an integral part in providing critical support to clients, partners, and attorneys of the firm. She propels our ability to exceed client expectations by assisting in legal research and drafting documents and filings. Her ability to effectively communicate, manage multiple client matters and projects, and act as a liaison amongst our clients, regulatory bodies, and strategic partners on behalf of our legal team speaks to the value she brings to JLG.

Prior to joining JLG, Ms. Sobel held the roles of paralegal and senior paralegal at various law firms, including Parks & Solar, LLP and Friedman Harfenist Kraut & Perlstein. Throughout her career she has been an interchangeable asset to her firms’ success, working in a multitude of industries, including family law, insurance defense and elder law.

As an asset to the JLG team, Ms. Sobel has a keen business acumen that aligns, similarly to the goals and objectives of our clients. Throughout her career, she was also owner and sole proprietor of her catering business, where she not only developed an understanding of the intricacies of forming a business but also valuable insight into the necessary steps in planning for its strategic growth and success. These experiences, combined with her work ethic, drive and ability to build productive working relationships, make her an invaluable resource to the firm.

Outside of work, Ms. Sobel has a passion for beach volleyball, cooking and spending time with her dog Benny.
