David Rodriguez is a dedicated and detail-oriented accounting professional. He has over 20 years of experience working with small to medium-sized businesses, handling full-cycle accounting, auditing assets, liability, revenues, and expenses, and implementing best practices to ensure accuracy in order to meet regulatory requirements.

In his previous role as Controller for the SBA, a San Diego-based entity that owns auto repair shops, real estate holdings and more, Mr. Rodriguez was instrumental in strategy planning and implementation, preserving accuracy and timeliness of data, liaising with other departments to facilitate quality control, and managing various transactions and accounting operations.

Prior to that, Mr. Rodriguez worked as Controller for a large food manufacturer where he monitored inventory procedures, supervised the accounting department, upholding the team's adherence to company policies and applicable laws.

Mr. Rodriguez is an asset to Jacko Law Group, PC as his commitment to accuracy and implementing best practices align with the firm's philosophy to meeting the needs of our clients.
